VOL. XLII.-NO. 115

INDICATIONS. For Tennessee and the Ohio valley cloudy weather, with local rains, northwester! winds, nationary or higher temperature and higher PROF. HUXLEY, the friend and defender of Darwin, is sure of a warm welcome when he arrives in this country next fall.

THE 4000 ironworkers who struck for At Memphis Favorably Reported-River since, are still idle at great loss to themselves and the country.

"Joinen the Jerked" is the characteristic, quiet, unobtrusive and tasteful headline which the Chicago Times places over an account it publishes of a recent execution.

FATHER TAYLOR said of Emerson: "I have laid my ear close to his heart and wm. BROCKWAY AND CHARLES SMITH LIKELY never detected any jar in the machinery, He is more like Jesus than anybody else I have

THE London Daily News, contrasting Emerson with Carlyle, says of the former that the man was greater than his written works, and of the latter that his written works were greater than the man.

THE widow of the late Jesse James is preparing the literary remains of her husband. They will be republished by a St. Louis firm,

THE Land Lesguers of New York are right in condemning the fiendish course of the London Times in urging a policy of hate and revenge against the Irish people as a crime, still more fiendish than the bloody deed which it so eagerly seizes as a pretext for the barbarous measures it advocates.

tant. The path will be over Asia and Central America, in a northwest direction, and the phenomenon will be best seen at Teheran and on the upper Nile. An English expedihas started for the Nile to take photographic and spectroscopic observations.

redouble their energies, for there are on the Speaker's table 178 bills that have passed the Senate and await the action of the House. There are above 600 bills on the calendars of the House. This number is the residuum after examining the thousands introduced at the beginning of the session.

plosed quiet at quotations; middling, 12c. In of the best for the people of the State with-Independency seems to be growing. Is there no way of preventing it?

The questions at issue were those growing out of the exercise of a purely official discretion, and are so regarded by the accomplished jurist whose large experience and searching powers of analysis are certified to in the several paragraphs of the decision which we publish in full in the fourth page of this issue of the APPEAL.

The bill authorizes the commission to respect to the brown rust on the leaves in grown rust on the leaves arm, which, having been approved by the several States South, but the stem is not gently and now too late for much loss from this cause. Rye is also in good condition, the general average being 96. It was the general average being 96. It was the grown rust on the leaves in grown rust on the leaves arm, arm, which, having been approved by the several States South, but the stem is not general average being 96. It was the grown rust on the leaves arm, and the several states South, but the stem is not general average being 96. It was the grown rust of the cause. Rye is also in good condition, the grown rust of the proving states of the rust of the rust im an enviable place in the general estimaquitted of wrong intent, motive or result.

WE regret to say that Irish affairs are be-oming more and more complicated. The $10,500,000. duced by Mr. Gladstone yesterday reminds | GENEVA AWARD BILL PASSED THE HOUSE roving judicial commissions of 1798, and should not become a law. It is Mr. Gladstone's greatest mistake, and reads more like a sop to Cerberus—an act to appease the mad, revengeful passions of the liour—than one looking to the consum
Washington, May 12.—House.—The bill passed the House providing for the removal of the late Gen. Kilpatrick from Chill to the United States.

Washington, May 12.—House.—The bill passed the House providing for the removal of the United States.

Meeting of Managers and Passenger agents of lin a paper providing for the removal of the United States.

Chicago, May 12.—The meeting of managers and general passenger agents of lin a in the joint executive committee, with reference report on the Geneval agents. mation of justice and peace. It is wrong in morals as in law, and it is to be hoped will be defeated. Brightening the prospect blackened by this repressive measure is that to be known as the "arrears bill." If that passes—and there is no reason to believe that it will not, since Home-Rulers and Conservatives as well as Liberals favor it—all will have been doze Liberals favor it—all will have been doze the following the prospect blackened of the minority was rejected at a long discussion and the enb-stitution of a new clause in the contract, of James T. C'Brien that the League give day. After a long discussion and the enb-stitution of a new clause in the contract, of the Cayendish and Burke assawing. The conference report on the agricultural and minor importance, the agree attention to the justice of the minority was rejected day. After a long discussion and the enb-stitution of a new clause in the contract, of the Cayendish and Burke assawing. The conference report on the agricultural and minor importance, the agree attention to the justice of the minority was rejected day. After a long discussion and the enb-stitution of a new clause in the contract, of the Cayendish and Burke assawing. The conference report on the agricultural and minor importance, the agree at the contract, and the contract and sufficient the contract and sufficient that the League give day. After a long discussion and the enb-stitution of a new clause in the contract, of the Cayendish and Burke assawing. The conference report on the agricultural and minor importance, the agree at the contract, of the Cayendish and Burke assawing. The conference report on the agricultural and minor importance, the agree at the contract, of the Cayendish and Burke assawing. It is not to the suggestion of the chapter assawing of the Cayendish and Burke assawing to the Cayendish and Burke asawing to the Cayendish and Burke assawing to the Cayendish and Bu mation of justice and peace. It is wrong in morals as in law, and it is to be hoped will be defeated. Reighten, 132; nays, 66.

award bill.

A substitute for the minority was rejected day. After a long discussion and the substitution of a new clause in the contract, of technical and reighten. "arrears bill." If that passes—and there is no reason to believe that it will not, since Home-Rulers and Conservatives as well as Liberals favor it—all will have been done that can be by the British government for the relief of the agricultural classes in Ireland and the establishment of a peasant proprietorship.

"tional bank bill, but failed to obtain the necessary two-thirds.

The call of committees having been concluded, Mr. Crapo called up the special order, but Mr. Randall calling attention to the fact that private business had been neglected for three days, raised a question of consideration in favor of the private calendar. The Democratiside showed a disposition to prietorship.

The Intermediate Appellate Court Bill Passed the Senate-Bill to Bridge the Mississippi higher wages at Cleveland, O., some days and Harbor and Pension Bills Completed-American Silk.

> Washington, May 12.—It is reported that the secretary of the interior has decided to disarm all the Indians in the Western States and loiterers subject to the effective control

COUNTERFEITERS INDICTED.

LION DOLLARS APPROPRIATED. the estimated further appropriation of $200,000 will be necessary to complete that period. The new bill appropriates for army pensions as follows: Invalids, $74,000,000; widows, children and dependent relatives, $20,000,000; survivors and widows of the war of 1812, $364,000; in all, $97,640,000; widows, children and dependent relatives, $900,000; in all, $1,800,000. It provides the children and dependent relatives, and on the upper Nile. An English expedi-tion, under the auspices of the Royal Society, of the navy pension fund, so far as may be sufficient for the purpose. The additional items are: For fees and expenses of exam-THE heats of July will catch Congress in preparing surgeons, $275,000; for pay and allow ances of pension agents, for salary fees for preparing vouchers, rent, fuel, lights and postage on letters to executive departments and to pensioners, $275,000; and for continuous tradepolate their energies for these are on gent expenses of pension agents, $10,000.

Washington, May 12.—The river and harbor bill is completed and will probably be reported to the House to morrow. Among the appropriations proposed are the following: White and St. Francis rivers, $12,000 ing: White and St. Francis rivers, $12,000 Big Hatchle river (Tenn.), $3000; Cane Fork river, $4000; Clinch river, $3000; Com berland river, below Nashville, $15,000 Cumberland river, above the mouth of Jel lico, Ky., $5000; South Fork of Cumberland river, $3000; Duck river (Tenn.), $3600; Freech Broad river, $5000; Hiawasse river, $15,000; Tennessee river, above Chattanooga, $7000; Tennessee river, below Chattanooga, $25,000; Kentucky river, $225,000; Ohio river, $350,000—of which sum $50,000 will sppropriates $41,213,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the improvement of the Mississippi river from the head of the passes to Cairo, including the harbors of New Orleans, Natchez, Vicksburg, Memphis and the rectification of Red and Atchafalaya rivers at the mouth of Red river; $600,000 from Cairo to the Illinois river, and $200,000 from the Illinois river to DesMoines rapids, which stums shall be expended by the secretary of war in accordance with the plans, specifications and estimates, under the supervision of the Mississippi River Commission, or according to such plans, specifications and estimates of the engineers department of the army, which, having been approved by the fourth page of this issue of the APPEAL.

The street railroads of Memphis are in better order and are more valuable to the public and the stockholders than ever before. This is due to the prudence, diligence and foresight of the officers whom Mr. F. S. Davis channel. It provides that whatever halance the officers whom Mr. F. S. Davis channel. It provides that whatever halance the officers whom Mr. F. S. Davis channel. It provides that whatever halance the officers whom Mr. F. S. Davis channel. It provides that whatever halance the officers whom Mr. F. S. Davis channel. It provides that whatever halance the officers whom Mr. F. S. Davis channel. It provides that whatever halance the officers whom Mr. F. S. Davis channel of the offic represented as the defendant in this case. A useful and enterprising citizen, the public will be glad to learn that the culmination of this suit leaves him unimpaired in any River Commission. The suthority granted of 85 in average year; 71 in Louisiana ingree of the character which has made for relating to wrecks and sunken vessels is ena, and that whatever the money settle-dispose of any sunken craft at his discretion 500,000 acres, with planting still in progress, he and those acting with him are ac-

PROCEEDINGS IN THE SENATE. WASHINGTON, May 12.- House .- The bill

COURTS OF APPEAL.

dered. The successive votes showed no quorum, the Democrats generally refusing to vote. Finally, on motion of Mr. Robeson, after the report on forestry was referred, the House adjourned.

Sesate.—Bills authorizing the construction of bridges across the Mississippi at Memphis, and across the Arkansas at VanBuren were and across the Arkansas at VanBuren were favorably reported. The latter authorizing the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad Company to build a bridge passed.

Consideration of the Intermediate Appellate Court bill was resumed, the question being upon its passage. Senator Pugh referred to the recent declaration of Senator Davis [III.], that if he had the power he would divide the appointers countily between would divide the appointers equally between the two parties. He construed this as an in-dication of that senator's course in regard to dication of that senator's course in regard to the nominations when they came in for con-firmation, and he added the minority were compelled to trust the President to select judges with reasonable impartiality. Senator Davis [III.], in replying to the ob-jections made in the debate, reviewed the ac-tion of the Federal courts in awarding writs of mandamus, and the Supreme Court de-cisions concerning municipal corporations.

Discussion was continued upon amend-ments of the details, which were rejected, ex-

John I. Davenport, of New York, was there yesterday in connection with the Morey in letter. He had a secret conference with Postmaster Johnson, and one or two arrests there are expected.

THE CABINET.

SERGEANT MASON'S CASE CONSIDERED—THE TARIFF COMMISSION.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—The cabinet considered Sergeant Mason's case, but without result. The President is not quite ready to act. At the next meeting it is expected a tariff commission will be appointed. Pennsylvania congresamen recommend Henry W. Oliver, jr., of Pittsburg. The President has many applications and recommendations for Dotte the History remains of her husband. They will be republished by as R. Louin farm, and will overlay all the other yellow-covered interactive of period.

They will be republished by as R. Louin farm, and will overlay all the other yellow-covered interactive of period.

They will be republished by as R. Louin farm, and will overlay all the other yellow-covered interactive of period.

They will be republished by as R. Louin farm, and will overlay all the other yellow-covered by the period of the per poses was retained. The conference report on the agricultural appropriation bill was The five per cent. loan bill was made un-Adjourned until Monday.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—James O. Smith, contestant for the seat of Representative Charles M. Shelley, of the Fourth Alabama district, died to-night of pneumonia, after an illness of less than forty-eight hours.

BONDED SPIRITS BILL. PARE A SUBSTITUTE. WASHINGTON, May 12.—The Senate Fi-nance Committee took action on the bonded and Bayard as a sub committee to prepare a substitute which will not permit an indefinite retention of the spirits in bond, but will pro-vide for a maximum bond for a period of about three years. The substitute also provides that the bonds shall be given for the full amount of tax, and will extend the proposed benefits to spirits made from proof, such as apple or grape brandies. CROP PROSPECTS.

riculture.

of undiminished vitality and medium growth. The average condition is about 102, river, $350,000—of which sum $50,000 will be used for the improvement of Davis's Obio valley and Texas, and those of the Davis's Island dam; for continuing operations on the reservoirs at the head-waters of the Mississippi river, porating a snagboat, $20,-000; Mississippi river, operating a snagboat, $20,-000; Mississippi river, from Islands and State; Chalmers, of Mississippi, has made an alliance with Arthur, and is to lead the and surveys at South Pass., Miss., $10,000;
Mississippi, Missouri and Arkansas rivers, for continuing the removing of obstructions from the Mississippi river, $85,000; from the Missouri river, $65,000; from the Arkansas river, $30,000.

Is addition to the above amounts the bill appropriates $41,213,000, or so much thereof aggregate amount appropriated by the bill for the improvement of rivers and harbors, exclusive of the amount appropriated for the Mississippi and Missouri rivers, is about $10,500,000.

XLVIITH CONGRESS.

The approximated spring plowing done up to the 1st of May with the average year is greater the prescut season upon the Atlantic coast, south of New England, in the Ohio valley, and Missouri valley. It is less than usual in the Eastern States, in the Northwestern States, in the lower Mississippi valley, and on the Pacific coast. The condition ley, and on the Pacific coast. The conof mowing is represented by 92, a slight deficiency being in the Ohio valley and North

IRELAND'S FATE

Is Presently More Repression-Roving Judicial Commissions to Murder, Like Those of 1798.

The Arrears Bill to Come Up on Monday-The Assassination Still a exchequer.

The Pull Mall Gazette, while accepting other parts of the bill, protests against the clauses concerning the rights of search, reclauses concerning the rights of search, response to the recent assassinations in prevalence of outrage and disaffection in Ireland is largely due to the unjust eviction of 40,000 people, who will be further exas-AN INFERNAL MACHINE. canister was found at the Mansi-House to-night, suspended by a brass hook to the railing in front of the building.

Attached to it was a lighted fuse, which was war with England, though the American extinguished by a policeman. The fuse was made of a rog soaked with parafine, and was inserted in a hole in the box. This box is believed to be full of gunpowder, of which it mells strongly. It is twelve inches long and six inches in diameter. The police around the Mansion House and city buildings have been doubled, and many reserve policemen have been called out for extra duty. SAID TO BE CANAL-BOAT MEN. Nangle stated, at Southport, that the men who offered him money to assist in the mur-der were canal-boat men. He described Nangle was confronted with the canal-boatman whom he had decribed as the man who had offered him £100 to assist in the assassinations. The police concluded that the whole story was a falsification, Nangle's on suspicion of stealing cattle. WHAT DOES IT MEAN? Palmer, a volunteer detective in several important cases, and who writes over the signature of "Warhawk," in a communication to the St. Jam's Ganetic, says he has reason to know that the arrest of the assassins will be facilitated if the government will give a guarantee not to surrender the in-former in the event of his being claimed by the Rassian or German police.

brother is undergoing service for shooting a landlord at Longford. Nangl-was detained

DISCREDITING THE FIRST THEORY. DUBLIN, May 12.—The police and people are beginning to discredit the theory that Irish-Americans were imported to commit the murder of Cavendiah and Burke. This eads further to the deduction that some

EARL SPENCER'S TALK. Earl Spencer, replying to the deputation of the Dublin Chamber of Commerce and Belfast corporation, afterdeploring the tragic than life." In conclusion, Earl Spencer said:
"England is determined to do justice to Ire-land; equal to, thoughput surpassing, that so tragically cut short. Then from the darkest

A discharged soldier named Allen arrived in Mill street from Dublin last evening, and was arrested on suspicion.

BUMORS AND SPECULATIONS the recent improvement an extreme measure of repression is unjustifiable.

Arrests in connection with the assassinations continue. The latest are one Ryan, of Waterford, a year back from the United States, and James McGrath, at Shrewsbury, England.
Thomas Power O'Connor, member of Parliament, arrived at Queenstown from the United States. He goes to Dublin. Several English detectives have sailed for been increased, and passengers from and for America are closely watched. To-day a pas-senger was arrested whose movements were senger was arrested whose movements were suspicious, but he was subsequently released. The police are confident they have im-portant additional information.

Joseph Corvin was arrested at Helfast as the driver of the car which took the murderers to Phonix Park. A forest walker is also under arrest at Belfast. an in regard to the suggestion have gone to Paris, to see Egan, treasurer of the League. This gives color to the state-ment that a break is in progress between the Parnell and Rossa factions of Irish sympathizers. Fears are entertained among League members lest Parnell and Davitt's In the Senate on the Memphis Resoluconciliatory course should alienate the sympathy and cash of the Irish in America. They have gone to Paris to talk over the situation with Egan. I hear on undoubted, authority that Davitt will visit America on a League tour shortly after the introduction of the arrears act, which it is expected will produce unprecedented sums from America for the Irish farmers.

Deep Mystery.

London, May 12.—The Times says the Repression bill, taken altogether, covers the whole ground, and grapples every part of the subject resolutely and boldly. The Daily Telegraph and Standard approve the bill. The Daily News postpones criticism.

The News ways it is probable Gladstone will shortly resign the chancellorship of the exchequer.

The Pull Mall Gazette, while accepting

Washington, May 12.—William Brockway and Charles Smith were indicted for stealing from the treasury department the plate, dies, etc., from which were printed the sparious money thrown by them upon the market.

THE MOREY LETTER.

JOHN 1. DAVENFORT WORKING UP THE CASE—ARRESTS EXPECTED.

Washington, May 12.—The Star has a dispatch from Cumberland, Md., saying that John I. Davenport, of New York, was there yesterday in connection with the Morey letter. He had a secret conference with Postmaster Johnson, and one or two arrests there are expected.

Washington, May 12.—William Brockway and Charles Smith were indicted for stealing from the treasury department the plate, dies, etc., from which were printed the plate, dies, etc., from which were included of the measure without a vote. The bill passed finally—yeas 32, the plate of the plate, dies, etc., from which were printed the plate, dies, etc., from which were printed the plate of the beston. The Pull Mall Gazette, while accepta, recipies of the bill we present and Green United Sections. The bill wh were in full sympathy with the purposes of the meeting, and made the announcement the killing.") Richard Agerman, a patriot of '48, as he arose to speak, was greeted with cries of "three cheers for the assassins," "dynamite," etc. The crime, Agerman said, was unnatural, and he repudiated the idea that the deadly weapons were wielded by Irish hands. Ireland could not meet England in a conflict, and the way to coercive than the one he has claimed to abandon is impolitic and unwise, and justifies a resort to every legitimate means for frustrating the purposes of English tyranny and securing the realization of self-government for Ireland.

Major Patrick Horigan, of Meagher's brigade, was a vice-president of the meeting. He asked to read additional resolutions to those presented by the committee. Resaites those presented by the committee. Rossnites and personal friends of the major's shouted "Go on." Another crowd as lustily roared "Shut up," "bounce him," etc. These cries "Shut up," "bounce him," etc. These cries angered Major Horigan, and he turned and spoke sharply to those on the platform. He then read his resolution. It is as follows:

Dr. Wallace, president of one of the branches of the Land Lesgue, indignantly denied that the League had pandered to any such tastes. Yells and cries of all kinds proceeded from every part of the hall. The committee on resolutions quickly accepted Major Horiresolutions quickly accepted Major Hori-gan's contribution, and all were adopted with Paris as soon as expected, owing to warnings of assassination, but not to be committed by Irishmen. Redpath also made a speech, and the meeting was adjourned to cries of

FREAKS OF THE FLAMES.

New Orleans, May 12.—Fire damaged the customhouse $60,000.

BERLIN, May 12 .- A fire broke out to-day Berlin, May 12.—A fire broke out to-day in the hall of the Hygiene exhibition, near Moabit, District of Potedam. The building, of wood, was soon burned to the ground. The exhibition was to have been opened Tuesday next, and many co-tly exhibits were already in place, all of which were destroyed. The flames spread to and swept away several timber yards adjoining. The explosion of gas in the cofe on the south side of the building caused the fire. The loss is estimated at several hundred thousand pounds. Emperor William came from Potspounds. Emperor William came from Pots-

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Evansville, Ind., May 12.—The city has contracted for the Brush electric light. Boston, May 12.-The Massachusetts Historical Society held special exercises on the deaths of Ralph Waldo Emerson and Long-Easton, Pa., May 12.—The employes of the Delaware Bolling Mill struck against a monthly or fortnight payment. The strikers will be paid off. Petersburg, Va., May 12.—A cyclone on Wednesday completely razed to the ground residences, barns and fences, uprooted trees, caused the washing away of bridges and beat down the growing crops.

Chicago, May 12.—The annual convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians practically concluded its work to-day. To-morrow's session will simply be for the installations, in Which Mr. Smith, of Shelby,

A BREEZY DEBATE

Takes a Prominent Part-Probability That the Bondholders' Proposition Will be Accepted.

Senator Brown, of Georgia, urged the importance of missionary work.

Nashville, May 12—Senate.—All bills bearing on the State debt have been made the special order for 10 a.m. to-morrow.

L. B. Headrick, senator-elect from the Hamilton county district, was sworn in. House,-Messrs, Head, Poston and Vooris were appointed a committee to report the amount charged by the attorneys in the 100-3

A resolution instructing Attorney-General
Les to investigate the printing of the 100-3 was made the special order for to-morrow.

The night session of the convention was devoted to the consideration of foreign misbonds was adopted. The Senate resolution directing the State Debt Committee to report the number and names of the bondholders offering to settle the State debt at 60 and 3, 4, 5, 6, was tabled. The bill to settle the debt at 60 and 3, 4, 6 will more than probably pass both NASHVILLE, May 10.-Mr. A. E. Sneed, of air city, received the following letter, inthis city, received the following letter, closing the "card" which accompanies it:

then read his resolution. It is as follows:

Resolved. That while it may be deemed a matter of expediency to express regret for the slaying of Cavendish and Burke, we, the Irish exiles of New York, in mass-meeting assembled, express our greater regret that England should still continue her old-time practice of murdering our people in Ireland by buckshot, by the bayonet and starvation; and it is deemed more becoming that we, the representatives of the Irish race in this great metropolis of America, should express our sympathy with Gladstone's murdered victims of eviction than by pandering to the wishes of the Lord Norths of to-day, who are worthy descendants of the buckers of the Wyoming and Cherry Valley massacres in our own fair land and of Drogheds and Wexford in the land of our birth.

The resolution created a commotion, and Dr. Wallace, president of one of the branches I refer to R. J. Haire, Esq., of Kansas City, who, as my attorney, is cognizant of the Facts. I refer to R. J. Haire, Esq., of Kansas City, who, as my attorney, is cognizant of the re-

PAYNE AND HIS PARTY

CHICAGO, May 12.—A Wichita special says it is reported from Caldwell, Kas., that Payne and his company crossed the line Wednesday to Oklahoma. He had seven wagons and fifty men from Wichita and three wagons and fifteen men from Wellington. The Oklahoma Company claim this as Payne's personal enterprise. They are not meddling in its success. They regard it as doubtful. The party hope to get on the lands before the soldiers receive orders to eject them. Then they will claim to be on government land, and if forced off will raise ie question after. OHURCH CONVENTIONS.

DETROIT, May 13.—The Methodist Epis-copal Church is holding meetings in this city for consultation as to the interests of the denomination. There are present Bishops Simpson, Foster, Peck, Warren, Wilcox, Hurst, Andrews and Morrill. The sessions hurst, Andrews and Morrill. The sessions began to-day, and are secret. This evening a public meeting was held in the Central church in the interest of St. Albion College. Addresses were made by Bishops Hurst and NASRVILLE, May 12.—The principal part of the day was spent by the conference in the consideration of reports of committees.

The question of electing six additional bishops was discussed but no action was taken to-day. The Committee on 1 emperance submitted a report, which was adopted, as follows:
"Your committee to whom was referred a paper touching the use of tobacco would respectfully report that while we recognize the fact that much evil grows out of the intemport was not concurred in, but it was at the same time recommended that people everywhere be careful to procure the purest wines for this holy sacrament.

The verdict of the Alabama Conference, the verdict of the for this holy sacrament.

The verdict of the Alabama Conference, suspending the Rev.A. J. Briggs, in 1879, was to-day reversed by the General Conference.

GREENVILLE, S. C., May 12.—At a mass-meeting of the Baptist convention last even-ing, to aid the mission work in New Orleans, Dr. Lansing Burrows, of Kentucky, appealed for contributions to lift the deb church, and received $5000, At the session to-day the report of the Committee on Foreign Missions, recom-mending renewed diligence in China, was AFTERNOON SESSION. The Committee on European Missions recommended increased appropriations.

The Committee on Home Missions Board recommended the removal of the board from Marion, Ala, to Atlanta, Ga., and the report serious Trouble Browing in the Land of the Pharaohs.

EGYPTIAN AFFAIRS.

VIENNA, May 12.—Seven thousand Jewish refugees are in Brody. Two hundred arrive every day, while only 500 leave weekly. Their misery is indescribable. EGYPT. AN ATTEMPT TO DEPOSE THE KHEDIVE.

CAIRO, May 12.- The Chamber of Nota bles will open its session Sunday, with the avowed object of deposing the family of Mehemit Ali, to which the present khedive belongs. Many Europeans are leaving DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS RUPTURED.

LONDON, May 12.-It is reported the rela-LONDON, May 12.—It is reported the relations between the Egyptian ministry and the English and French comptrollers-general are ruptured. It is said the ministry intend to ask the Chamber of Notables to petition the Porte to remove the khedive, on the ground that he is incapable of governing. AN ANGLO-FRENCH SQUADRON TO BE DE PATCHED TO ALEXANDRIA. Paris, May 12.—It is believed that Tiscat, French ambassador to England, has been in-structed to propose to the English govern-ment that the Anglo-French squadron be immediately dispatched to Alexandria.

FOREIGN FLASHES.

BERLIN, May 12 .- Surgent, the America St. Petersburg, May 12.—Thirty-six houses were burned at the town of Oranien-Sr. Petersburg, May 12.—Huge fires southeast Russia. The loss of property enormous. Distress extreme.

HAVANA, May 12.-The steamer Manilla,

Judge E. W. Hilyer. San Francisco, May 12.—E. W. Hilyer, United States district judge, of Nevada, died at Carson, yesterday, of softening of the John Brown, M.D. LONDON, May 12.—John Brown, M.D., of Edinburgh, a well-known author, is dead.

An Italian, who began gathering old bot-des in a sack a few years ago in New York, has just paid $19,000 cash for a house. Young men in the senior classes of our colleges, wao, in the language of their class-day orators, are "standing on the threshold of ure. I am the same yerson, without doubt, that boarded at Mr. Kenir's under the assumed name of Josie Howard. I would have answered sconer, but I have had so much to look after I could not do so. I have received several letters from friends in Nashville since the death of my husband, and am sorry that I could not answer them promptly. Mary, my little girl, has not forgotten you yet, although she was quite small when there. Jesse (alics Tim) often tells her that Dr. Sneed is her sweetheart. Jesse is the boy's name. Inclosed find a card which I would like to have you hand it to the editor and ask him to publish it for me. This man to make the published in the Nashville papers. If it will not be asking too much of you I would like to have you hand it to the editor and ask him to publish it for me. This man to misse the published here as a stand in the profession, and it is safe to say that no young doctor or lawyer has, in a few years, laid by $19,000 in cash. The profession of a bottle-gatherer requires but little technical training and a very small capital. The Italian whose good fortune is chronicled above began with a bag and ended with employing a large number of men to push hand-carts and pick up the old bottles. A young man who adopts this profession need not lose his position in society. Are not collectors of bric-a-brac at the top of the social ladder?

the top of the social ladder? Alexander H. Stephen's has indicated the position he will take in the Georgia guber natorial canvane. When questioned by a representative of the Atlanta Constitution as to whether he had authorized the Indeinterests of all classes, without regard t party organization, but with the object i view of restoring harmony to the entir

LITTLE ROCK, May 12.—The Arkansas river has fallen two inches to-day, and is falling at Fort Smith. The delayed passen-ger train on the St. Louis and Iron Mounwill run on that road north from this city Monday. The weather turned quite cold today, and reports from other quarters show that the rivers are falling.

Before dancing put your feet in good order by using German Corn Remover. 25c. Sold by druggists.

Masonie Notice

EILA SCOTT LODGE, No. 289-WIII Lines tin special communication this (SATURDAY) might, May 12th, at 8 of clock, for work in the Feliow-Crafts degree, All F. C.'s are cordially invited.

By order
JAS. S. MAHAPPY, Secretary. SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT. MOSLER, BAHMANN & CO. SAFE MANUFACTURES, Cincinnati, Oh

SAFE MANUFACTURES, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Hereby give notice to the public that the agency of H. H. Warner, of Rochester, N. Y., has been terminated, and he no longer acts for or represents asid company.

All communications and other correspondence whatsoever relating to our business should be addressed only to the undersigned. We cordially invite correspondence for Fire and Burgiss-Proof Safes and Vault Work of every description, and a continuance of the very large and generous patronage that has been extended to us during the last thirteen years.

MOLLER, RAHMANN & CO.,

Front, Elm and Water streets, Cincinnati, O.

Apollinaris "THE QUEEN OF TABLE WATERS."

which is produced by Nature and is not the handiwork of man, it is a Natural, and not an artificial Water. U.S. Treasury, 28 Jan., 1882. ANNUAL SALE, 10 MILLIONS.

nittee on Temperance submitted a Of Grocers, Druggists, & Min. Wat. Dealers. BEWARE OF IMITATIONS JUDGE J. W. C. WATSON. ED. M. WATSON, ESQ. WATSON & WATSON for such a purpose he will at once resign the treasurership.

Break Between the Parnell and Rossa

Boston, May 12.—Quite a breeze has been stirred up among the colored people of this city by the alleged refusal, at the Revere House, of a room for the occupation of Gento the Revald says Parnell, Kelly and Davitt to the Revald says Parn

AN ENTIRE NEW STOCK

PRICE LIST:

Men's Working Suits, $3 75.

School Suits from 8 to 12 Years Children's Suits from 3 to 10 Years

Men's Beautiful Blue Suits, $3-25.
Men's Blue Flaunci, fast colors, $9-50.
Men's Mohair, elegantly made, $15.
Men's Imported Worsted Suits, Frock or Sack, $12.
Men's Imported Drap De Ete Suits, $14.
23 Styles Fancy Cassimere Suits, of the Finest Woolens and Make, from $10 to $15. Boys' Suits from 11 to 16 Years.

Burable Play Suits, $2.
Fancy Castimere Suits, $3 25.
Dress Suits, $5.
Children's Knee-Pants, 75 cents.
Boys' Pants, from 12 to 16, $1 25. Underwear, Etc. Men's Cassimere Pants, $1 75, and up to $4 50, Men's Unlaundried Shirts, 60 cents. Men's Light Merino Undershirts, 25 cents, Men's Fine Jeans Drawers, 50 cents, Men's White Lawn Ties, 10 cents a dezen.

And a Great Many Other Goods too Numerous to Mention. W. ASHNER, No. 3331 MAIN STREET, Memphis, - - - Tenn.

Nos. 326-328 Main street, Memphis, Tenn.

WE ARE IN DAILY RECKIPT OF DESIRABLE SPRING GOODS WHICH we offer to the trade upon the most favorable terms. Our prices will compare favorably with those of any market in the United States. Special Inducements to Cash Buyers. LEMMON & GALE. COTTON FACTORS.

286 Front street COTTON EXCHANGE Memphis, Tenn.

296-298 Front St., Memphis, Tenn. HILL, FONTAINE & CO.

Cotton Factors & Wholesale Grocers,

Cotton Factors, Commission Merch'ts No. 116 South Main street, St. Louis. BUSBY, TOOF & CO

WHOLESALE

M. GAVIN&CO.

Wholesale Grocers, Cotton Factors, Ar d Commission Merchants, and 234 Front St., Memphis, Tenn. Our L N. RAINEY devotes his whole time to the Weighing and Sale of all Oction intrusted to out the new our own Cotton Warehouse, conver Washinston and Sevend strasts

ARMISTEAD & LUNDEE, AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS.

16 and 18 Union street, Memphis, Tenn.,

Solicit Business in that Line.
Advances to Solvent Parties, and on Consignments

SAW AND PLANING MILL, NAVY YARD DOORS, SASH, BLINDS, MOLDING, LUMBER Lath and Shingles, Flooring, Ceiling, and Cedar Posts,

Reaping & Mowing Machines STEEL-TOOTH HAY RAKES, DEERE SPRING CULTIVATORS STOCK PEAS, R. G. Craig & Co.

No. 361 MAIN STREET, Memphis. - - - Tenn.